Knowing You from the First Time i saw you gave me a Electric Love inside that gave me a Sign to know your Beauty..

Knowing your Beauty captured always my Moments that made my Heart ready to open and recieve Love Signals with the Blessing from the Angels..

Knowing your Longing gave me a chance to Sacrifice my Beautiful words and give you my Heaven so your Love can shine again..

Knowing your Love that had a Sad past gives me a True chance to fill a new Chapter with a True Future which will give you Sunrise every morning and Sunset every night..

Knowing your Future is Blessed here with me gives you a open Road to success for every Opportunity you will get in Life..

Knowing your View of Life made my choices simple because i have searched all my life for the Truth and i found it with a Beautiful Life partner that is You..

Knowing you and your Beauty now is like Medicine to my True Feelings and my Lost Heart that found Paradise with You for Eternity..

We now know that we both have created True Love based on a True Story
